

french institute
alliance française

22 East 60th Street
New York, NY 10022

T. 212 355 6100
F. 212 935 4119

info@fiaf.org
www.fiaf.org

Where can I practice speaking French at FIAF?

(last update: January 15, 20209)

Many members are interested in coming to FIAF in order to practice speaking French. Please find below a list of activities where you can enjoy putting your hard-earned language skills to work in an enjoyable format. These opportunities will allow you to practice your oral comprehension and speaking skills, in addition to making new friends with other FIAF members. Students will enjoy finding programs at their level to complement their instruction in the FIAF Language Center.

Please consult the FIAF website (www.fiaf.org) for more information, dates and to register.

Cercles de Lecture

Join fellow Francophiles at these popular book discussion groups. For students levels A2, B1, B2. In the Library on Thursdays at 6:30; one session per level each season.

Papotons!

A casual and relaxed drop-in session to practice and improve your French conversational skills. Chat with the library staff, fellow students and members about anything! See FIAF website for dates.

Zéro Faute!

Get your pencils ready for a dictée and hone up on your listening comprehension skills in this classic exercise in writing correct French. Short dictées will be given at the intermediate and advanced levels. See FIAF website for dates.

Ciné-Salon

See French classics, new films from across the Atlantic, cult favorites, and more. In the spirit of the French ciné-clubs and literary salons, weekly CinéSalon screenings feature a film, conversation, wine, and beer. You can discuss the film with fellow cinema buffs after the screening.

Rendez-vous

The first Tuesday of each month offers you an opportunity to stop by for a drink at Rendez-Vous, catch a CinémaTuesdays film screening. You can join French-speakers of all levels after work for conversation moderated by native speakers. Enjoy wine and cocktails, soft drinks and snacks in a fun, welcoming environment. See web site for dates.